ATTACHMENT "A"

On October 13, 2007, U.S. Border Patrol Agents arrested Cecil Lovice BROWN and Adrian SANDOVAL-Trujillo at the IH-35 checkpoint north of Laredo, Texas. At approximately 8:30 PM, BROWN, along with passenger SANDOVAL, approached the checkpoint while driving a blue 1994 Chevrolet Silverado pickup, bearing Texas license plate [REDACTED] registered to Cecil BROWN. During an immigration inspection of BROWN and SANDOVAL, a USBP service canine alerted to the presence of contraband and/or concealed persons underneath the rear of the vehicle. During an inspection of the vehicle by USBP agents, 2 bundles of marijuana, weighing approximately 41.5 kgs, were discovered concealed in the gas tank of the vehicle. DEA agents responded to the seizure and interviewed BROWN and SANDOVAL after advisement of their Miranda Rights. BROWN stated that he knew that there was marijuana concealed within the vehicle and was going to get paid $10,000 by SANDOVAL to assist in the transportation of the marijuana from Nuevo Laredo, MX to San Antonio, TX. SANDOVAL stated that the marijuana located in the gas tank of the vehicle was his and advised agents that he purchased the marijuana in Zacatecas, Mexico approximately 2 months ago for $60 per kilogram. BROWN and SANDOVAL were subsequently processed and transported to the Webb County Jail pending their initial appearance in Federal Court.
